Documentary Film "The Secret Jews of Calabria"

Tuesday, August 18th at 7:30pm

Moderated by Helman Brook

southern Italians come to light.

Rabbi Barbara Aiello takes us on a challenging journey through the "toe" of the Italian "boot", as she shares the joys and struggles of the b'nei anusim, Italians whose families were forced into Christian conversion centuries ago. Obscure alleyways, secret rooms and hidden traditions come to life as locals share family stories of Jewish traditions that for centuries were hiding in plain sight. "I'm Italian but could I be Jewish too?" Rabbi Barbara's journey courageously answers that question that has mystified

Selichot 5775 — September 5th

Next to "Kol Nidre" sung on the eve of Yom Kippur, "Avinu Malkeinu" is no doubt the most remembered of all the melodies of the Days of Awe. Join us Saturday evening, September 5th at 8 PM for a fascinating program on the origins and development of this well known poem. To be discussed is why, in times when making liturgy gender neutral is popular, we still understand this prayer as speaking to God in terms of "Our Father, our King." Our brief Selichot service will begin immediately following the program at 9:15 PM. Let us begin the season of renewal and "at-onement" together.
