RABBI'S COLUMN

By Rabbi Jerry Blum

Just days ago, we commemorated Tisha B'Av, the Ninth of the Hebrew month of Av, considered the saddest day of the Jewish year. It is the day that we remember the destruction of the Temples in Jerusalem, among other tragedies that have befallen the Jewish people, and yet, the moment that the sun goes down at the end of Tisha B'Av, a feeling of lightness and peacefulness comes over us and the words of the Prophet Isaiah, "Nachamu, Nachamu Ami – Be comforted, be comforted my people" herald in a time of contentment and healing.

This is the perfect leadup to the Hebrew month of Elul which falls just days (at least this year) into the month of August. Elul is a month of reflection, renewal, re-entering and change, for in just a few weeks we celebrate the Birthday of the World, Rosh HaShanah and shortly thereafter, Yom Kippur.

This year's High Holy Days will add to the change. It is our hope that we will re-enter our sanctuary fully so that we can worship together, but it will be done in hybrid fashion, meaning that it is our intention for our services to be live and in person, but we will also broadcast them so those who are not able to join us in the temple, for whatever reason, will be able to join in as we pray together.

This year we will welcome to our bimah, Cantorial student Lori Weber who is an advanced placement student at AJR and has been leading services professionally for many years. She enjoys when we all sing along together and I believe that you will all enjoy her style. Lori led services with me last Friday and I hope we all felt the joy of Shabbat. Lori will also join us during the month of August so that she can be formally introduced, and we can all learn some High Holy Day music. I can't wait to pray and sing together as we bring in 5782.

Wishing you a meaningful Elul and a restful summer.

Rabbi Jerry

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Terry Birnbaum-Horton

Dear Friends;

The High Holy Days are weeks away and we are planning and working on services. It is time that we remind you of our New Year's card with original art and our Memorial Book for Yom Kippur. We welcome friends and extended family to services too.

We hope you will wish your friends at Temple Isaiah a Shanah Tovah with a special New Year's card designed by our very own member Nina Koss.

It is also traditional to remember your loved ones who have passed in our Yom Kippur Memorial Book.

The purchase of tickets for friends and extended family are always available too.

We look forward to being together in the sanctuary this year, to pray, meditate and greet each other in person.

Sincerely,

Terry Birnbaum-Horton

PS: Temple Isaiah members; Please remember that you must have a pledge form on file, and have made at least an initial payment against that pledge in order to receive free High Holiday tickets

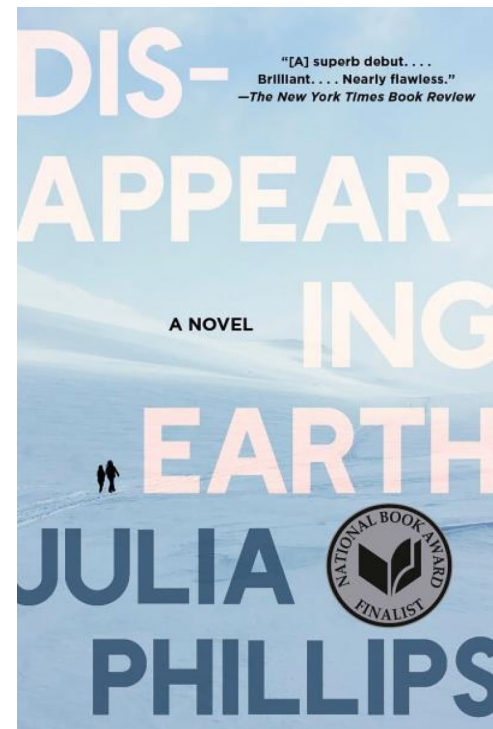

Temple Isaiah Presents
Disappearing Earth
by Julia Phillips

BOOK
DISCUSSION

August 11th at 7:30 PM via zoom

This novel set in Russia, begins its first chapter with the abduction of two young girls but it is not centered on the plot. Each subsequent chapter represents a month following the abduction and is narrated by a different person living in this remote place. How they connect, if at all, is brilliantly developed by the author. Disappearing Earth has a profoundly emotional, universal core. This deeply meditative, heart-rending tale is stunningly original and a remarkable achievement. There is not one extra word.

Please join us for this discussion and share your thoughts on this interesting and powerful book.

It's Never Too Late!
Better Late Than Never!
So, the clichés go,
there's always a grain of truth!

Over a year ago, we remembered and Honored in our Journal, our esteemed members, David Aubrey and Marcia Null, who volunteer and contribute greatly to Temple Isaiah.

Yet, due to the pandemic, we did not have a chance to share a meal and sing their praises. UNTIL NOW!

Please join us for an informal lunch if you can, To let David and Marcia know that they are appreciated and we are grateful for all they do for us.

Honor your loved one in our Memorial Book

As the High Holy Days approach, we continue our tradition of publishing a Memorial Book to honor our departed loved ones that have made an imprint in our heart and been a part of our lives. As in past years, the booklet will contain the names of our loved ones and appropriate memorial prayers, which will be made available to you for Yom Kippur.

In order to be certain that the names of your loved ones are included in the Memorial Book, please complete and return the form no later than Wednesday, August 4, 2021. Please note that all information must be submitted in written form.

*For those that placed remembrances in last year's booklet, a copy of your entry will be sent for your review. If needed, please make the appropriate changes and send back to Temple Isaiah.

*For those that have not previously placed a list of remembrances in our booklet but would like to this year, please list below the names that you would like listed in the book. If they have departed during this past year, please indicate that below.

It is an old Jewish Tradition and Mitzvah to honor our loved ones that have departed, by making a contribution in observance of Yizkor. We thank you in advance for your generosity.

MEMORIAL PLAQUE

Order today in time for Yom Kippur

Remember your loved one in perpetuity with a solid bronze memorial plaque on our Illuminated Memorial Tablet in our Sanctuary.

Orders placed by Friday, August 13th will be received in time to be placed on our Memorial Board in time for Yom Kippur.

For more information contact the office at TempleIsaiahGreatNeck@gmail.com

ORDER AN ENGRAVED PLAQUE TO HONOR AND REMEMBER YOUR LOVED ONE

It is deeply rooted in Jewish tradition to place in the sanctuary of the synagogue a plaque with the names of loved ones who have passed away. Once a plaque is dedicated, it becomes a permanent memorial. The Yahrzeit lights will be illuminated on the yahrzeits of your loved one's death and at Yizkor services throughout the year.
